PROBATION, CONFIRMATION AND RESIGNATION POLICY

3.1 Probation policy

3.2 Confirmation of services

3.3 Superannuation age

3.4 Resignation from service

Annexure-1

3.1 Probation policy

Objective

To provide a policy framework for confirmation of regular employees after completion of the probation period.

Eligibility and coverage

All new recruits of the institution on regular rolls.

Policy and procedural formalities for completion of probation

Probation shall mean a prescribed period for which an employee has to serve prior to being confirmed in the Institution's service on permanent terms. The probation period shall give new employees the opportunity to demonstrate their ability, to achieve a satisfactory level of performance and to determine whether the new position meets their expectations. The Institution shall use this period to evaluate the employee's capability, work habits, and overall performance. During this period, the employee shall be considered temporary on specified conditions.

- ❖ Appointment to all types of permanent posts in the Institution shall be made on probation for a period of one year from the date of joining. However, in exceptional cases, the period of probation may be for two years for certain employees purely at the discretion of the Interview Panel Recommendation and Management.
- ❖ The probation period may be extended in cases where the employee's performance is not up to acceptable standard or fitment to the job or could not be evaluated during the probation period.
- ❖ During the probationary period, a contract of employment may be terminated by either party by giving not less than one month's notice of termination, or by payment of one month's basic salary in lieu of notice.
- ❖ An employee is not entitled to any other benefits/privilege or to be promoted during the probationary period of service.
- ❖ The probation period maybe extended by the number of days an employee takes leaves during his/her probation period.

3.1.1 Extension of probation period

- ❖ In such instances where an employee does not meet the required standards of performance, the HOD may recommend extension of the probation for a maximum of six months.
- ❖ Probation period may be extended under any of the following circumstances:
 - i) Performance of the probationer is not up to expectations.
 - ii) The role and skills of the probationary is not aligned.
 - iii) Probationer's values are not aligned with the institution values.
- ❖ A mutually agreed and detailed Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) involving counselling and training will be documented, and areas of improvement clearly communicated to the employee in the prescribed format.
- ❖ The performance will be reviewed once again at the end of the extended probation period. The probationer's services may be confirmed subject to satisfactory performance.
- ❖ If the probationer's performance remains unsatisfactory after the PIP, his or her services may be summarily terminated.

3.2 Confirmation of services

An employee who has successfully completed his/her probation may be confirmed in the service with effect from the date of expiry of their probationary period. The procedure for confirmation shall be as follows-

- ❖ HR department will send the Probation Review Form (Annexure – 1) to concerned HoD at least one month before the expiry of the probationary period.
- ❖ The HoD of the respective Faculty shall evaluate the employee's performance during the probation period and where the performance of the employee due for confirmation is found satisfactory, shall forward to the Manager – Human Resource, a recommendation that the employee be confirmed.
- ❖ Where the Head of the department finds the performance of the employee due for confirmation to be unsatisfactory, the Head of the Unit shall so inform both the Manager – Human Resource and the employee in writing and indicate clearly his/her recommendation.

- ❖ Confirmation in all cases shall be processed within the probationary period of an employee. In the event that this is not done and the probationary period expires, the employee shall be entitled to have their confirmation back dated to the date it was first due.
- ❖ Upon confirmation, the notice period on either side will be of two months.
- ❖ It is mandatory to serve the notice period and the option of offsetting the notice period, partly or fully will be at the sole discretion of the management. The management may also, at its sole discretion, accept notice pay in lieu of the notice period. Notice pay shall mean basic salary of the employee.

3.3. Superannuation age

Superannuation age for-

- i) Academic positions – 60 years
- ii) Non-Academic positions –60 years
- iii) Librarian – 60 years

Beyond this age, academic positions up to the age of 65 years may be extended based on the health conditions and performance of the faculty and management committee recommendations. Non – academic staff may be re-appointed on contract basis not exceeding two years on need basis after review and specific approval of the principal / management.

Subject to availability of vacant positions and fitness, the faculty shall also be re - employed on contract appointment beyond the age of sixty-five years up to the age of seventy years. Re - employment beyond the age of superannuation shall, however, be done selectively, for a limited period of 3 years i.e., the first instance and then for another further period of 2 years purely based on merit, experience, area of specialization, performance review and only against available vacant positions.

3.4. Resignation of service

All regular permanent employees may be relieved from their duties subject to 2 months' notice from either side. No faculty is allowed to resign, if they have joined on or before 31st Aug of the same year till 30th April of the subsequent year (as per the NBA/ VTU/ AICTE guidelines). Their name and details will not be removed from the University portal in case of any violation of this rule.

Teaching staff may however be relieved only at the close of a term /semester so as not to jeopardise teaching.

The services of employees who are on probation may be terminated at the end of such period without any notice.

Temporary/Contractual employees may be relieved with one month's notice from either side.

LEAVE AND HOLIDAY POLICY

4.1 Rules of leave management

4.2 Classification of leaves

Objective

The basic objective of leave and holiday policy is to communicate various kinds of leave entitlements to the employees of the institution and provide guidelines for availing these leaves.

Management reserves the right to modify this policy as per the requirements of the Institution.

4.1 Rules of leave management

Scheduling-

- ❖ Leaves should be scheduled in advance to balance both employee's and the Institution's requirement with the prior approval of the concerned authorities.
- ❖ For applying for leave, "Year" shall mean the Calendar Year commencing 1st January and ending 31st December.
- ❖ The HR Department is responsible for maintaining a Leave records through offline and ERP system for each employee. A month-on-month update is required to track the employees leave entitlement.
- ❖ It is mandatory for employees to make an alternate arrangement during their period of leave.
- ❖ General principle for granting leaves is to follow the guideline issued by VTU, All India Council for Technical Education, Government of Karnataka etc.

SALARY POLICY AND PAYROLL PROCESS

5.1 Type and fixation of initial salary

5.2 Payroll schedules

5.3 Payroll deductions

5.4 Full and final settlement and procedure

5.5 Exit interview

Annexure 2

Annexure 3

5.1 Type and fixation of initial salary

In general, the type and fixation of initial salary is subject to statutory requirements like those of the government pay scales (as per the directives of 6th pay commission) and All India Council of Technical Education (AICTE) pay fixable ruling 2006. The institution shall have its own staff grades and pay structure. The structure well also be followed during recruitments and promotions. Staff qualifications, experience, competency, and skill shall be considered as important criteria for deciding the salary.

5.2 Payroll schedules

Employees are paid for all the days of the month. Salary will be credited by 7th of every month. Payment is directly deposited with a designated bank (Axis Bank) in the individual's account or given in cash for some employees depending on the nature of employment. All employees are advised to open a savings bank account in designated bank and intimate the account number to Accounts Department in writing within 7 days from the date of joining.

Higher remuneration:

The institution is authorized to pay higher remuneration on a case-to-case basis depending on the merit of the candidate. To avoid any salary disparity amongst the employees, an extra remuneration may be given in the form of Research allowance or administrative allowance or other allowance as an addition to standard remuneration. Such allowances may be reviewed and approved by the Management and it is subject to tax.

5.3 Payroll deductions

- ❖ Income–tax, professional tax and contributory provident funds are deducted wherever applicable.
- ❖ An employee may also authorize deductions for Institution sponsored health benefits, insurance, and employee's emergency fund wherever applicable. All other deductions will be notified to the employees. Employees are not allowed to commit any deductions from salary directly to any outside agency / bank / financial institution / co-operative society, etc without explicit written permission by the Management / Principal.

- ❖ Income-tax: It is mandatory that all eligible staff must present their investment plan (if applicable) to the Human Resource department at the beginning of the financial year to finalize tax deducted at source (TDS) for the financial year. Subsequently, tax investment certificates must be submitted at the end of the financial year to claim tax exemption as per the investment plan furnished at the beginning of the financial year.

5.4 Full and final settlement policy and procedure

5.4.1 Policy

This policy is intended to ensure the smooth functioning of the Institution at the time of separation of an employee. The policy aims at ensuring that employees terminating their employment with the Institution (whether voluntarily or through disciplinary action) settle his/her accounts and obligations before departing.

5.4.2 Procedure

- ❖ Employees who wish to leave the Institution will address the resignation letter to their respective HoD's giving two months' notice of their intention to terminate their services with the institution.
- ❖ In exceptional cases where the respective HoD is unavailable, the resignation may be submitted to the Principal / HR Manager.
- ❖ Immediately on receipt of the resignation letter, the concerned authority will verbally intimate the HR and Accounts Department for appropriate action.
- ❖ In case the employee requests for release prior to completion of notice period, he will be required to pay the requisite amount for the balance notice period. The decision for early release will be taken by HoD / Principal / Management.
- ❖ The HR Department in consultation with the HoD/ Principal should ensure succession arrangement on receipt of the resignation.

- ❖ Final settlement of Accounts will be made by the Accounts department after obtaining no dues clearance from all Departments. (Annexure-2)
- ❖ Settlement of dues will be made in the consecutive month of resignation along with salaries payable to other existing employees. This is only if all the clearances are in order.
- ❖ Any intentional damage to books, documents or such activity will be compensated for by the employee through necessary deductions as per the policies.
- ❖ Settlement of any PF or statutory related dues (if applicable) will be undertaken as per the prevailing government policies.

5.4.3 Exit interview

An Exit Interview (Annexure -3) will be conducted by HR in coordination with respective HOD for all outgoing employees. If any valuable suggestions arise from the Exit Interview form, the same will be forwarded to the management.
